Convention Is Nearing End

Indiana Man Selected for the Vice-President on the Very First Ballot.

DENVER, July 10--Kern was nominated with acclamation for Vice-President at 4:06 this afternoon.

CONVENTION HALL, DENVER, July 10.—At 1:40 o'clock all the indications were that the nomination for Vice-President would be John W. Kern of Indiana, and probably on the first ballot. This was the opinion of the New York delegation, even though the State was not committed to him or any other man. Florida and Kentucky pledged their votes to him. Delaware agreed to yield to Georgia on the roll call to permit the name of Clark Howell to be presented before the convention, but declared that on the second ballot, if one was taken, it would go to Kern. Dunn of Nebraska, who placed Bryan in nomination, says Nebraska will probably pass on the roll call for Vice-President in order that Nebraska may have no influence on the selection. Nebraska has not been polled, but the delegates individually turn to Kern, since learning of Gray's positiveness against taking the Vice-Presidency. Judge Gray and Governor Felt are entirely out of the race, having made their position fully plain.

FAIRVIEW, Lincoln, Neb., July 10.—Wm. J. Bryan may go to Denver. This afternoon he was in telegraphic communication with Judge O. P. Hall, the national committeeman from Nebraska. Mr. Bryan invited the new national committeemen to visit him at Fairview upon their return from the convention, he said that if this were inconvenient he (Mr. Bryan) would go to Denver.

THE DAY'S HAPPENINGS

DENVER, Colo., July 10.—The terrific strain of the all-night session caused the majority of the delegates to sleep late today and the state headquarters were, as a general thing, practically deserted during the middle hours of the morning. Several light-attended conferences regarding the vice-presidency were in session in the various hotels, but nothing decisive had developed from them by 11 o'clock.

The most important of these gatherings was in the room of Charles Bryan, the brother of the nominee, in the Brown Palace Hotel.

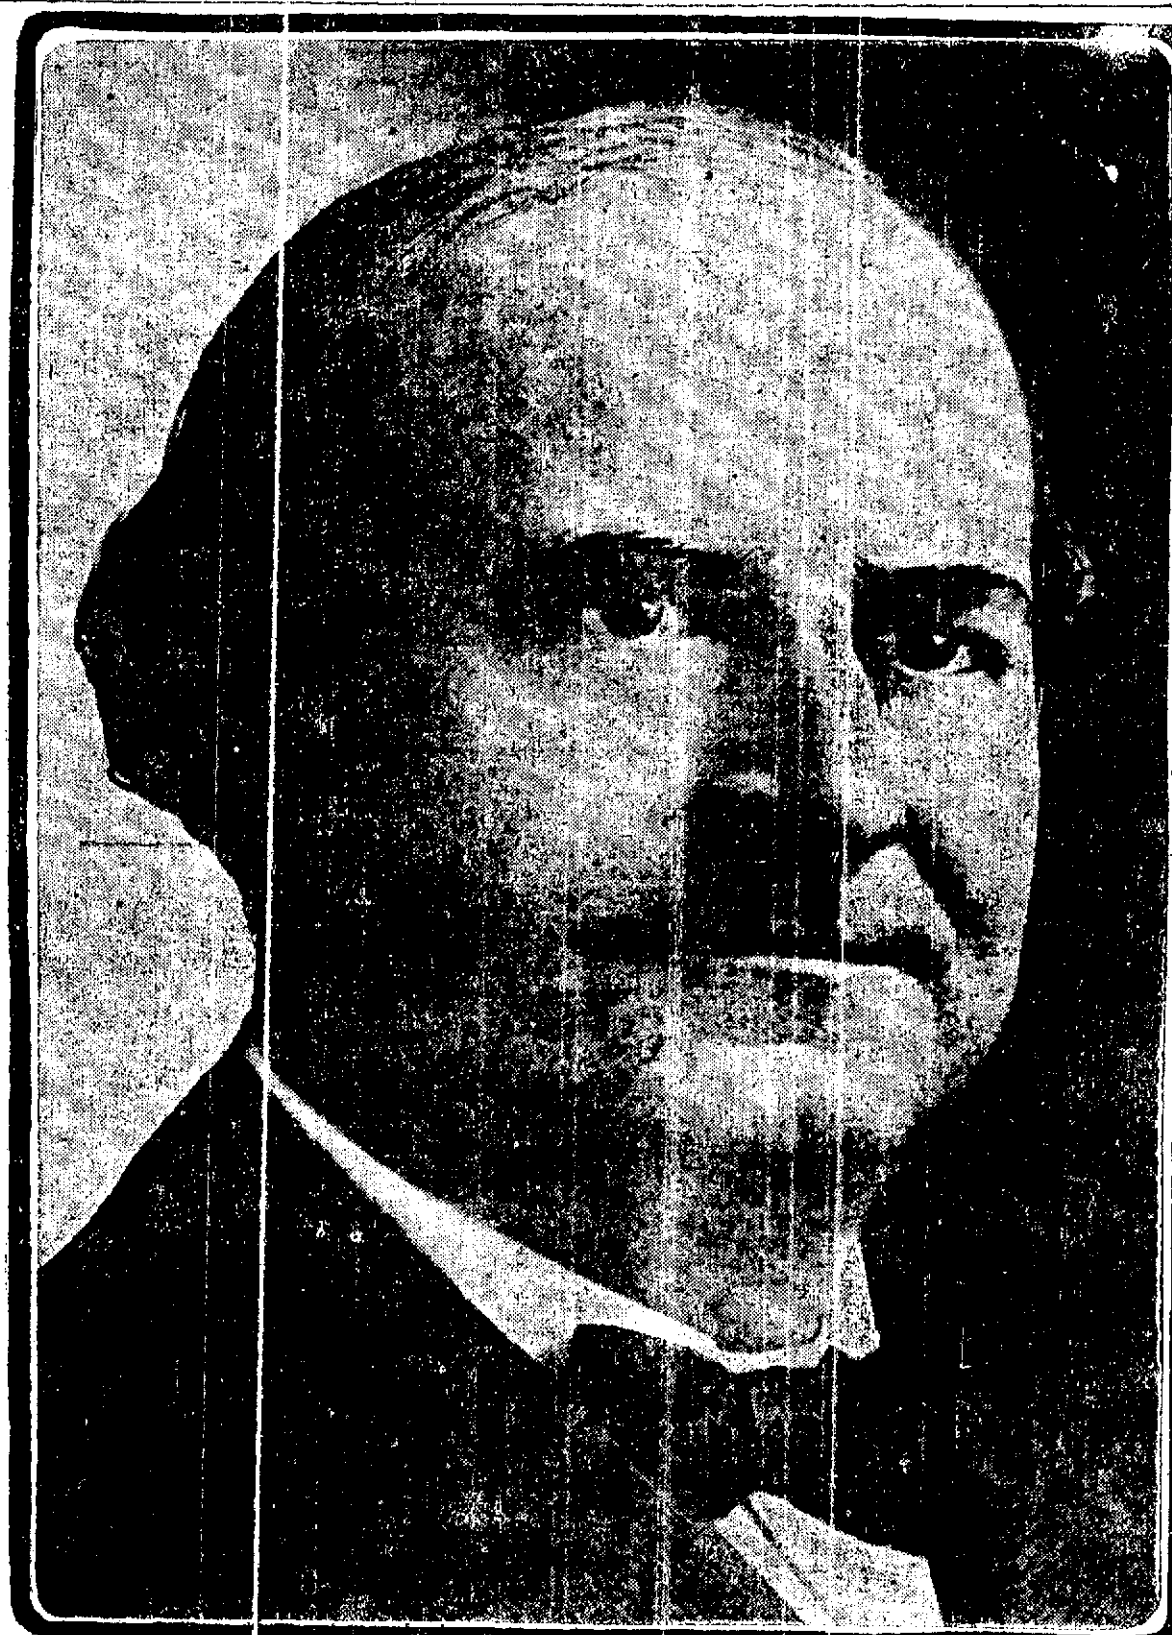

NO AGREEMENT REACHED.

Mr. Bryan decided that while the vice-presidency was under consideration no agreement had been reached and that so far as he knew there was no consultation in favor of any particular candidate. He added that he was absolutely without advice of any kind from Lincoln regarding the second place on the ticket and was not even able to venture a prediction regarding the outcome of the vice-presidential situation.

Other Bryan leaders intimated that while they also were without a word from Lincoln, it was likely that if on the first ballot any one man showed a strong lead they would, providing he was one of several men who would be satisfactory to Mr. Bryan, throw all their strength to him.

The name of Gray of Delaware was

SHERMAN IS TO DROP
ONE JOB

WASHINGTON, July 10.—Representative James S. Sherman, candidate for Vice-President on the Republican ticket, in a short time will retire from the Congressional Committee, of which he is chairman. The announcement of Sherman's prospective resignation was made here today by Senator Mendenhall of Indiana who, accompanied by Representative McKimley of Illinois, arrived in Washington this morning from Hot Springs, where they had been in conference for several days with Judge Taft.

This decision was reached only after very careful consideration of the entire political situation. It was finally deemed wise for him to relinquish his position as chairman of the Congressional Committee largely on account of the duties and responsibilities.

Speaker Cannon left Washington Wednesday night for Utica, N. Y., where he conferred with Sherman and left last night for Louisville, his Illinois home, thence to join Mendenhall and McKimley.

Early Morning Scenes at Big Convention—Wildest Kind of Enthusiasm.

DENVER, Colo., July 10.—William Jennings Bryan of Nebraska was nominated for the third time for the office of the President of the United States at 3:40 o'clock this morning amid scenes of frenzied enthusiasm. The result came after an all-night session, which was kept in a constant state of turmoil up to the culminating moment, when the Nebraska leader was proclaimed the choice of the convention as the Democratic standard-bearer. The nomination was made on the first and only ballot, the vote standing:

William J. Bryan, 892½; Governor John Johnson, 46; Judge George Gray, 59½.

Wild Demonstration

The announcement of the vote was the signal for a wild demonstration, equaling in turbulence, if not in duration, the record-breaking display which on Wednesday afternoon greeted the first mention of Bryan's name in the convention.

The scene within the amphitheater at the moment the nomination was made was one of stirring animation. From pit to dome the vast building was packed with ten thousand people, thinned out in the galleries, after hours of waiting and the discomfort of the night. It was a spectacle of the grandest proportions—tier on tier, and gallery on gallery of agitated forms, the women in white, the delegates massed below, many of them coatless, a myriad of fans fluttering to combat the stifling heat and close atmosphere of this long pent-up excitement. The record-breaking display of flags, bunting and patriotic devices and the enveloping folds of Old Glory. Twice before the throng had been moved into a mad ecstasy, first by the speech placing the name of Bryan in nomination and again when that of Governor Johnson of Minnesota was proposed, but these manifestations paled before the culminating outburst of emotion.

By Acclamation

As the announcement of the Nebraska leader's actual nomination was made the whole assemblage arose on many feet.

waving flags, handkerchiefs, newspapers, hats and coats, anything and everything which hands could lay upon to wave aloft or hurl into the air, while a Bedlam of sound poured out from those ten thousand throats in exultant yells, catcalls, "comanche war whoops, with the added din of shrieking horns, the roar of megaphones, and the strains of the band playing an exultant anthem.

When for a moment order was secured, out of the tumultuous chaos of demonstration, State after State which had at first recorded its vote for Johnson or Gray, fell into line with the overmastering Bryan column, and the nomination was made unanimous and by acclamation.

The taking of the vote had been taken in breathless interest, as State after State, as the Bryan column reached in the call of the States, the announcement of Mr. Murphy, "twenty-eight votes for Bryan," under the unit rule, brought out a wild outburst of enthusiasm and approval, which for a time compelled the suspension of the roll call.

Pennsylvania was similarly called, as a sharp disagreement within the delegation, and the vote of Pennsylvania was finally cast was divided.

CONVENTION ADJOURNS.

The convention adjourned at 3:50 o'clock this morning until 1 p. m., after having been in session continuously for more than eight hours. As the delegates and spectators left the hall, the echoes of enthusiasm continued to reverberate throughout the building, while crowds outside took to the shout and here it along the dark and silent streets, awakening the city just as the first pale rays of dawn were breaking in the east, with the resounding chorus of "Bryan, Bryan, I yan."

NOW THE VICE PRESIDENT.

It remains now only to nominate the candidate for vice-president and the work of the convention is concluded. The nomination will be made this afternoon. Absorbed with the intense interest of the night, delegates had little time to devote to the consideration of the Vice-Presidency, and the final canvass of available candidates being hurriedly made this morning. Most of the delegates were utterly wearied after the long vigils and nerve-racking agonies of the night, and it was late today before the men of action began again to take up the threads of discussion over the still rather chaotic Vice-Presidential situation.

GLENDI ORATORY.

Prior to the culminating scene in the convention hall when the nomination of Bryan was made, the assembly had listened for hours to the oratory of nominating speakers, who moved them frequently to outbursts of feverish excitement. It had been expected that the platform would be ready for adoption at 1 o'clock in the evening, but at that hour the committee on resolutions was still struggling with the plank relative to the currency, the tariff, the Mormon question and other important subjects. A committee appointed by the convention to learn how soon the platform could be ready, reported that it would be ready before the document was ready for the consideration of the convention. Thereupon, on motion of Congressman Ollie Jones of Kentucky, the regular order of procedure was suspended, and the convention proceeded to call the roll of States for nominations for the Presidency, with the understanding that the nominating and seconding speeches could be made without a final vote until the platform had been adopted. At 6 o'clock, the nominating speeches began and delegates and spectators were stirred with expectancy as the supreme and long deferred work of nominating the presidential candidate was begun.

LED TO NEBRASKA.

Alabama, the first State on the roll call, yielded to Nebraska, the home state of Bryan, whose spokesman, the faithful orator, Ignatius J. Dunn of Omaha, advanced to the platform. He spoke in good voice, with great earnestness, and to a sympathetic audience which greeted each utterance of tribute to the Nebraska leader with demonstrative evidence of approval. His concluding passage was a fervid tribute to the commander as the intrepid leader who had borne the battle-scarred flag of Democracy through the campaign of 1906 and 1908, with the devotion and faith of the crusaders of old America's great commoner, Nebraska's gifted son, William J. Bryan.

WOMAN FAINTED.

This was the signal for a long continued uproar, rivaling in intensity and duration, the demonstration of Wednesday, which lasted one hour and twenty-six minutes. Again the whole assembly was lashed into a fury of excitement. The delegates seized the States' standards and gathered them on the presiding officers' platform, while the galleries broke into tumultuous clamor. The demonstration lasted upwards of forty-five minutes. At times it assumed such proportions of madness, as the excited throngs rushed through the aisles toward the platform, that there was serious danger of panic. Men and women bowed over in the mad onrush of flag-bearing enthusiasts. One woman fainted and was carried from the hall.

JOHNSON'S NAME.

The nomination of Governor Johnson of Minnesota precipitated another whirlwind of excitement, if not so long sustained, hardly less enthusiastic than that for Bryan. The delegation from Minnesota standing on their chairs and waving flags, handkerchiefs, hats—anything that could be waved—were the storm center of the demonstration, while groups of scattered delegates here and there, lent their energies to those of Minnesota. The galleries, too, seemed to contain an ample supply of Johnson enthusiasm, and on every hand the waves of Johnson demonstration swept back and forth from end to end through the great building. When it had lasted a considerable time the conven-frequently mentioned but there seemed to be a fear that he would not accept the place.

The followers of John W. Kern were especially active and there seemed to be a strong tide of sentiment setting in for him. The Kentucky delegation declared itself for Kern first, second for Gaynor and third for John Mitchell.

Governor Folk of Missouri said that he could not say what his State would do but added that he had no intention of permitting his own name to be presented to the convention. Several of the Missouri delegates declared themselves as favoring Kern.

WANT BRYAN'S CHOICE.

"What's the use," asked Ex-Senator James Smith of New Jersey, when inquired of as to whether he had heard of any suggestions regarding the Vice-Presidency. "What's the use?" he repeated. "So to Mr. Bryan. The delegates know nothing about it. The only thing I know nothing about it, but it is not necessary they should know anything about it. Mr. Bryan will name his running mate and he should name him. I think about the Vice-Presidency just as I did about the platform, and that is that Mr. Bryan should be consulted and his wishes respected."

Mr. Smith's sentiment was held among Democratic leaders, but there were many who believed Mr. Bryan will not officers sought to restore order. The sergeant-at-arms was ordered to send the yelling delegates, and every effort was made to bring the convention back to a state of submission but in vain. The demonstration went on with unabated fury until it had spent itself after more than a quarter of an hour of vociferous tumult.

GRAY'S FOLLOWERS.

The Gray nomination also received its full share of enthusiastic approval, although the nominating speech of Irving L. Hardy of Delaware was frequently interrupted by the impatient crowd and finally by the arrival of the committee on resolutions, hearing the completed platform.

It was after midnight that the nominating speeches were temporarily suspended to receive the report of the committee. Governor Haskell of Oklahoma, chairman of the committee, made the report announcing at the outset that it was presented as the unanimous view of the committee, the entire membership of which ranged themselves on the platform, flanking Governor Haskell as an evidence of their united attitude.

The cancellation of the party principles was received with close attention and with frequent demonstrations of assent. The provision concerning resolutions was punctuated by applause and at its conclusion a ringing cheer went up from the delegates and spectators. The provisions concerning trusts, railway regulations, income tax and various other provisions awakened lively approbation. The platform was adopted by a rousing unanimous vote.

OTHER NOMINATING SPEECHES.

The speeches seconding the nomination of candidates were then resumed, with a limit of five minutes for each speech. The seconding speeches for Bryan included those of the governor of North Carolina, Governor Swanson of Virginia, Representative Hollin of Alabama, Augustus Thomas, the playwright of "Missouri," Jerry T. Sullivan of Iowa, O. W. Powers of Utah, and ex-Senator Gearhart of Oregon, and John J. Lynch of Ohio.

The seconding speech for Governor Johnson was made by former Attorney General of Maryland, that for Judge George T. O'Boyle of the Indiana delegation. Mr. Jackson, the chairman of the delegation, had a conference with Charles B. Ryan, who is in constant telephonic communication with the presidential nominee and this was cited as a "straw" that the wind was blowing favorably from Lincoln for the Indiana man.

LABORED SIXTY HOURS.

For nearly sixty hours the committee on resolutions as a whole or its sub-committees were busily engaged in continuous session at work upon the platform and up to a very short time before midnight, when the document was finally presented to the convention, its members wrestled with the momentous subjects concerning which they were charged with the framing of the official utterances of the party. While planks were referred back to the sub-committees for redefining and even after what was intended to be the final draft was in the hands of the press associations to be telegraphed to the newspapers of the country from Cape Cod to the Golden Gate, changes of phraseology were made, word by word and plank by plank the platform was scrutinized in the effort for clearness and perfection of expression.

When Chairman Haskell finally took it under his arm and jumped into an automobile for his flying trip to the waiting multitude in the convention hall, the document that he bore was the unanimous expression of the committee, there was not the smallest suggestion of a minority report.

TRUST FIGHT PLANK.

The plank on the trust question was the last to be adopted by the committee and it had been the subject of long debate. Judge Parker of New York, ex-Senator Smith of New Jersey and Senator Newlands of Nevada had been united in opposition to any expression on the subject. Senator Smith provoked a long debate by an amendment to the tariff plank suggesting the necessity of recognizing the cost of labor in revising the tariff schedules, but it was strongly opposed by his colleagues on the committee and was finally withdrawn, as it was said, upon receipt of a request by telegraph from Mr. Bryan himself.

Ex-Senator Dubois of Idaho proposed an anti-polygamy plank which was finally defeated by a tie vote—20 to 20. In this connection a telegram from Mr. Bryan to his brother here, in response to an inquiry on the subject, was read as follows:

"I have not taken any part in exercising any opinion on the subject referred to in your telegram. There are several States especially interested in all permitted to present their views and his committee on resolutions should then decide the question according to its judgment. It will not be influenced one way or the other by me."

not dictate the man for second place. Accordingly there was a shower of candidates early in the morning and one might easily have imagined that a new convention was about to take place. Among others mentioned and urged were Charles A. Towne, Martin W. Littleton and Lewis Nixon of New York, Governors Francis of Missouri and Douglass of Massachusetts and Clark Howell of Georgia.

MAY BE HOWELL.

"Howells will be for Howell," said Mr. Marvel, manager of Judge Gray's candidacy, "because in the first place he and the Georgia delegation gave their loyal support to Judge Gray for the Presidency, and in the next place we consider him a strong and available man."

There were those who expressed the opinion that New York would not attempt to interfere in the matter, but would be glad to designate anyone who would be satisfactory to Mr. Bryan. There was, however, a tendency toward Mr. Nixon or Mr. Littleton. While Mr. Towne is a resident of New York, indications in the early morning were that he would not be spontaneously named by the New York delegation, notwithstanding there has been considerable pressure brought to bear in his interest by outside friends of Mr. Towne.

TALKING TOWNE.

One of them, Colonel Owenby of Colorado, who is associated in business with J. Pierpont Morgan, went to the extent of calling Mr. Morgan in Mr. Towne's behalf, with the result that he received a reply saying that Towne's candidacy would be as satisfactory to Mr. Morgan as would be that of any other Democrat except Judge Gray.

Mr. Towne has personal friends among the western delegates and they were actively engaged in his behalf and Mr. Towne himself is on the ground giving the closest attention to the details of his campaign.

Ex-Senator Kern of Indiana was in decided favor among many delegates on the ground that he was not only in complete sympathy with Mr. Bryan, but also because he holds from a doubtful state. For the first time during the convention Governor Folk's friends were active early in his behalf and one of them, John Brisbane Walker, now of this state, but formerly of New York, wired Mr. Bryan as follows:

Apparently the Democracy is about to perpetrate a vice-presidential blunder as outrageous as that of the Republican nomination of Sherman. Nominate a Cleveland Democrat and your assassination is secured. Nominate a weakling and the nomination spells defeat. The entire country has confidence in Folk. He has been thoroughly tried and has proven himself in every way. The nomination would insure complete victory."

WISCONSIN DIVIDED.

Mr. Folk's candidacy is weakened by his failure to secure the support of the entire Missouri delegation. The Indiana delegation met today to discuss the situation and there was great enthusiasm shown for Kern. An address was made to Mr. Kern in which it was declared he was not an eager candidate for the vice-presidency and that if there was to be balloting for the nomination he would not allow his name to be presented. It was, however, that if before the roll call was begun he was assured by any considerable number of states that they considered him the most available man he would accept the nomination, but he insists as he has done since his name was first mentioned in connection with the vice-presidency, that he was not anxious for the nomination.

After the roll call of the Indiana delegation Mr. Jackson, the chairman of the delegation, had a conference with Charles B. Ryan, who is in constant telephonic communication with the presidential nominee and this was cited as a "straw" that the wind was blowing favorably from Lincoln for the Indiana man.

BRYAN'S GIRL STUCK TO THE END

DENVER, July 10.—Mrs. Ruth Bryan Leavitt, perhaps the most interested person in the entire convention, remained to the end of the all-night session witnessing the furious demonstration when her father was nominated. Her friends made their speeches, and the lesser cheers received by the two rival candidates, Johnson and Gray.

Not until the votes had been cast and her father endorsed by the convention as his unanimous choice to bear the standard of the party did she leave her seat in her box at the south end of the auditorium, and join the crowd hurrying homeward. Whenever she was at the mention of the great leader's name broke those all eyes were turned towards Mrs. Leavitt, who, smiling and happy, listened to the evaluations accorded her father.

DELEGATES DID NOT GO TO BED

DENVER, July 10.—Many of the delegates did not go to bed at all after the close of the session, but, coming out of the convention hall into what seemed to be a broad daylight, walked the streets until after breakfast time or took early trolley rides through the empty streets to the suburbs. The outskirts of the various hotels and the churches in front of the great crowd crowded in the dim light of dawn, with sleepy-eyed men, talking of the exciting scenes which they

RECEIVING THE NEWS

FAIRVIEW, Lincoln, Neb., July 10.—It was home-day at Fairview. From Lincoln and the outlying districts those who know the Bryan family came to congratulate them on the honor that has fallen to the Master of Fairview. They came by street car as early as 8 o'clock and later there were all kinds of vehicles from the old-fashioned lumber wagon to the automobile, carrying friends and neighbors. By 10:30 the lawn in front of the house was crowded by about 2000 persons. From the city of Lincoln came a large delegation headed by a brass band and a large American flag, carried by James Kern. From the time they came in the until they drew up in front of the Bryan residence they shouted and yelled and cheered and when the noise spoke to them they punctuated every sentence with cheers and applause.

RECEIVED CROWD.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan received the crowd in front of the house. The great demonstration paid them by the neighbors visibly affected them and several times the speaker was obliged to stop because of his emotion. During his talk Mrs. Bryan was frequent in tears, caused by the homage paid by those who had been their friends for two decades.

In his speech Mr. Bryan avoided politics and begged his Republican neighbors to overlook in the future any language on political issues which would differ from theirs.

MUSIC BY BAND.

After the address was concluded there was music by the band. The Mexican Serenade La Paloma (The Dove) was played, it being the nominee's favorite air, and he acknowledged that the piece was most appropriate, since those animated emblems of harmony were set free in the convention hall at Denver.

After the hand-shaking which followed the speech, the visitors were shown about the farm and through the house.

COMEDY, SINGING AND DANCING ARTISTS AT THE BELL THEATER

In McNish and Penfold, who present a comedy sketch at the Bell this week, that popular playhouse has one of the best features it has offered in weeks.

McNish is a genuine black-face artist and Penfold has an excellent voice and renders a bunch of popular songs that the audience thoroughly enjoys. Their comedy is new, light up to the minute and they never fail to bring down the house with their jokes and quips. In addition to this star feature the Bell is offering other high-class attractions that are winners of popular favor. In the Gleasons—John and Bertha— with Fred Houllhan, there is the top-notch dancing act ever pulled off. Miss Gleason has challenged the world to a contest in dancing and her purse of $10,000 has never been covered. George O'Raney and all the other vaudeville favorites are pleasing the big crowds at the Bell this week. The Reliance Club had the matinee performance today and they thoroughly enjoyed the eight big feature acts. Two evening performances tonight and tomorrow and Sunday's usual performances will close the bill for this week.

LITTLE GIRL FATALLY BURNED WHILE PLAYING

Child Finds Matches and Sets Her Clothes on Fire

Cries of childish glee over the discovery of a package of matches which could be made blaze up in flame were immediately converted into heart-rending screams of agony this morning when little Celia, 4-year-old daughter of Mrs. Leonard, caught fire which resulted in fatal burns about her limbs and body. She now lies at the point of death on a cot in the receiving hospital.

PLAYED WITH MATCHES.

The child was playing alone in her back yard at 885 Mead avenue about 11 o'clock this morning when she found a package of matches. According to the little boy in the next yard, Celia struck the matches and in a sec-ond's time she was one mass of flames.
Mrs. Julia Leonard, the child's aunt was sweeping inside the house when she heard the frantic screams and rushed to the yard. Little Celia seemed to be burning up. The woman grabbed a sheet from the clothes line and rolled it around the tiny form. The flames were not extinguished until Mrs. Leonard's right hand was severely burned.

The child was a mass of black cooked flesh when Mrs. Leonard rushed to the receiving hospital and laid the body on the operating table. Dr. Irwin and Steward Harry Borchert worked hard on the child, and in a few minutes they had the tiny body covered with soft bandages.
She was placed in a soft cot, but life was almost extinct and no hopes were maintained for the child's recovery.

HEART-BROKEN WOMAN.

"I cannot see where the child got the matches," sobbed the heart-broken woman. "I was in the kitchen sweeping when I heard her screams and rushed out. I rolled her in a sheet and tried to put out the fire as best I could. I will give anything if she will live."

The child is the daughter of John Mc-Bryer, a hotel porter. Her mother is dead and Mrs. Leonard, sister of the dead woman, has been keeping house for McBryer and the baby.

WANT ASSESSMENTS CUT BY SUPERVISORS

Property-Owners Who Think
They Have to Pay Too Much for Taxes.

Eleven applications for the reduction of taxes were received by the board of Supervisors today, sitting as a Board of Equalization. The largest one was that of Joseph Fallala, owner of property at the southeast corner of Fourth street and Broadway. He said his property was assessed at $39,000 and he wanted it reduced to $24,000.

Chief Deputy County Assessor Robinson stated that Fallala's assessment had been reduced $5000 on the realty and $1000 on the improvements from what it was last year. After hearing a portion of the testimony on the matter the board continued its work Monday, when they meet again.

Four small protests were granted to property owners who said they were taxed more than their neighbors. With the exception of Fallala's protest, the complaints made by property owners have been only a matter of a few dollars, which the officials say are probably due to slight errors.

The board of Equalization will meet again Monday and then meet from time to time until July 20th. The assessment books are open in the rooms of the Board of Supervisors, where all property owners are invited to inspect them.

SECOND SMOKER OF THE BORCHERT CLUB

The second grand smoker given by the members of the Borchert Republican Club of the Forty-eighth Assembly District will be held in Hobey's hall on Eleventh street, between Broadway and Franklin, at 8 o'clock tomorrow night.
Attorney Phil M. Walsh, who has been assemblyman from this district for the past eight years, will be the principal speaker of the evening. He is out of the race because of his moving to Mid-mont. He is in favor of having the Republican nomination given to Steward
Harry Borchert of the Receiving Hospital and will tell the voters of the district about it tomorrow night.

John C. Rohan will be on hand with 100 voters from the Sixth ward.

GRANTED DIVORCE FROM SICK HUSBAND

interlocutory decree of divorce from culosis and he did not tell her about it at the time of their marriage.

Suit for divorce on the grounds of desertion has been filed by Julia Costa against Frederick Costa, a Hawaiian planter.

FIFTY VOTING MACHINES ARRIVE FOR COUNTY

In the arrival of fifty automatic voting machines late yesterday, the Board of Supervisors have received the complete assignment of 160 machines which were ordered a year ago. All of the machines will be used in the coming election. The machines have been arriving in installments, according to the financial standing of the county. This last consignment was due to arrive last month, but was delayed until today.

The machines were stored in the basement of the courthouse.

BRYAN LONG ATTEMPT TO IN EYE OF PUBLIC HOLD UP A JEWELER

'Boy Orator's Third Nomination
During Twelve Years Is Defeat to Parker Forces of New York.

Twelve years ago on the 7th of July William Jennings Bryan was first nominated by the Democratic party as candidate for President.

In the convention of 1900 he was again nominated after one of the most sensational fights ever seen in a Democratic convention, the issue being squarely
Bryan and his silver views, and the Cleveland Democrats.

In 1904 he was probably the most dominant figure in the Democratic convention in the hands of Judge Alton B. Parker, who represented the sound money element of the Democratic party.

This year he has been nominated again by an overwhelming majority, despite the bitter fight waged upon him by Judge Parker and other eastern Democrats who have always been his opponents.

"BOY ORATOR."
Bryan's first rise to great prominence was twelve years ago at the Chicago convention, the issue being squarely
gold and silver, the silver plank of the platform, which he discussed, he was referred to as the "Boy Orator of the Plains."

Almost from the beginning he kept the interest and enthusiasm of the delegation which rose into the wildest enthusiasm when he delivered the col-

Masked Man in Broad Daylight
at Point of Revolver Orders Shopkeeper to Open Up Safe.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—Shortly before noon today a bold attempt was made to rob the jewelry store of A. Anister at 1722 Divisadero street.

At that hour a young man, masked, entered the place and pointed a revolver at the head of Anister and imperiously ordered him, under pain of death, to open his safe and turn out its contents.

Anister shouted and attracted the attention of passersby on the street. The would-be robber saw that he was in danger and, with his revolver in his hand, rushed for inches and fled along Levisadero street. He was followed by a few residents for a short distance, but they abandoned the chase when they learned that the would-be robber was armed and desperate.

POOR DESCRIPTION.
Anister is a man advanced in years and was overcome by the unwelcome visit of the intending robber. The only description Anister was able to give of the man was that he was about 23 years of age.

There's a cracker-jack show at IDORA PARK this week!

Friday Evening, July 10, 1908

Whatever you do, don't miss seeing "The Jolly Musketiers" at the theater at Idora Park
this week.

It's great!
It's one of the best musical productions that has ever been seen on this coast.

It's clever—it's full of snappy songs—it's just as funny as it can be, and at the same time so full of good music, and good work that you'll rub your eyes and wonder if you're really seeing it all for one little four-bit piece.

It's actually a two-dollar show. Why, it's worth double the price of admission just to hear Miss Mason, Miss Tasker and Tom Perse sing "The Wishing Well" in the first act.
And the ensemble, "The Letter From Papa," by the company is another musical gem.
Oh, you'll like it all right, folks—you'll say it's the prettiest little opera you've seen for years.

The costumes are simply elegant. Fresh and bright and new, they just sparkle in all their glory and seem to join right in with their wearers and enter into the same life and spirit of the production that permeates the whole company.

You know the Idora Opera Company is under a new stage manager this week. Mr. Chas.
Swickard, the author of "The Tales of Hoffman," the opera that created such a furor in New York, is in charge. And Swickard is truly a wonder. He has instilled new life into the chorus, new ambitions into the principals, new ideas into the management. He has produced a show this week that ranks right up with the best of the New York productions—a show that nobody can afford to miss.

Now, don't overlook "The Jolly Musketiers"—don't wait until tomorrow night—go tonight. You'll be glad you did if you do. You'll say it was the best half-dollar you ever spent for amusement.
We're certain of that.

TURNED BACK THE CLOCK SO THAT BRYAN WOULD NOT BE NOMINATED ON FRIDAY

May be there will always be a question whether Bryan was nominated officially on Friday. According to the big clock in the convention hall it is a few minutes before 12 o'clock on Thursday, the 9th of July.

It was a superstitious sergeant-arms who arranged for the week without a Friday and he put his idea in effect without consulting anyone.
Having accomplished his purpose, the cheers of the Democrats proved the unanimous adoption of their men's resolution.

When the hands of the clock in the auditorium last night pointed close to the hour of 12 the superstitious sergeant climbed to the top of the railing opposite the speaker's platform, and stopped time in its flight. The cheers which followed indicated the assembled delegates and visitors did not want to see important business transacted on Friday.

REFUSES TO PUT BOY IN ASYLUM

Judge Says Lad Who Read Two Books a Day Needs Rest From Reading in Country.

Continual reading of books and too much study caused the nervous breakdown of 11-year-old Benjamin Blotcky of Alameda, but Judge Harris refused to commit the boy to an insane asylum this morning at the request of the boy's father, M. I. Blotcky, an Alameda business man.

"I will not permit such a dreadful calamity to be cast on this boy's future," said the court. "It appears to me that he has been reading too much and a rest is what he needs. Take him away from his books for a while and give him a vacation in the country. No matter what work of life he would take up, the fact that he was committed to an insane asylum when a boy would some day ruin him. The State asylums are for maniacs that are dangerous to the community. This youth appears to be harmless and I am of the opinion that he will recover if taken away from books. He has the making of a good citizen and I will not deprive him of his future unless it is proven that it is absolutely necessary for his being sent to a hospital for the insane."

Judge Harris continued the case to August 17, when Blotcky will bring his son into court after a quiet vacation. Young Blotcky reads two books of fiction each day from the Alameda library. He read the accounts of the murder of Verne Carrin by Mark A. Wilding, who is awaiting a death sentence. This crime is said to have made him imagine that his food was poisoned and the air was filled with chloroform.

WIFE SAID SHE WAS HAPPY ALONE

Frederick Carter, a hotel clerk, was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce today from Mary E. Carter, who signs her name as "May" Carter. The couple lived happily together from December, 1892, until the day after the earthquake and fire, when Mrs. Carter came with her spouse to Oakland, only to leave him in the rush and take up a residence in the sunny south. Carter has heard from her at Redlands, Los Angeles and several other points in southern California, but she refused to come home to him.

Carter and his friend, Charles McLaren, testified that Mrs. Carter positively refused to return to her happy home. McLaren met her in Los Angeles one day when she received a letter from her husband. Instead of being pleased with the news she crumpled it up and threw the bits on the floor. Carter produced a letter from his wife in which she stated that she was happy alone and would never return to him. She told him it was useless to ask her for she was going south and did not want to hear from him again.

10,437 PERSONS IN STATE INSTITUTIONS

In the various State institutions—insane asylums and prisons—there were last month 10,437 persons, an increase of 60 over the preceding month. In San Quentin there are 1670 men and 32 women; in Folsom 1009 men and no women; a total of 2711 and an increase of three over last month. There are 6260 persons in insane asylums, an increase of 45.

GOWNS RUINED BY INK THROWER

Vandal Continues to Destroy Costly Dresses in Spite of Detectives.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—As a result of an ink thrower, who has been operating in San Francisco for two months, many handsome gowns worn by the most exclusive society women have been ruined. The miscreant has not been apprehended and the police department has been forced to acknowledge that not the faintest clue to his identity has been learned.

The finest and most costly gowns were the ones selected by the vandal as the target for the ink. In the majority of cases the spots have not been discovered until the wearer returned home, and by that time all chance of discovering the perpetrator of the act was gone.

GOWNS RUINED.
Among the women who have suffered are:
Miss Mary Kenney, daughter of Dr. James W. Kenney, 2250 Clay street.
Mrs. H. W. Elliott, sister of Mrs. R. P. Scherff, and wife of the general purchasing agent of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad, 2518 Octavia street.
Miss Alta Ghirardelli, daughter of the prominent manufacturer, 5000 Pacific avenue.
Miss Florence Ives, sister of Mrs. Henry J. Crocker, 2250 Washington street.
Mrs. Harry Gray, wife of H. N. Gray of Gray Brothers' Crushed Rock Company, 5350 Washington street.
Miss Olga C. Dierks, 900 Divisadero street.
Mrs. D. Ford, 713 Fifty-fourth street, Berkeley.

POLICE ON WATCH.
The police department now has plain clothes men stationed all through the locality in which most of the gowns have been ruined. Even Chief Biggs' little 13-year-old son has been holding the door of the White House, on Van Ness avenue, with orders to watch the most elaborately dressed women, but he has

Astounding Reduction on Pianos

Piano Buying Without Precedent at the Eilers Store

Evidence of returning prosperity. New Pianos $172, $212.50 and $268.50. Less than Manufacturer's cost.

When the Eilers Music Co. advertised a few days ago at prices in some cases even below manufacturer's cost, they were surprised at the instantaneous response, and likewise extremely gratified, because it demonstrated the faith evinced by the residents of Alameda County of the genuineness of this proposition.

First. They know that when this great house submits a special proposition to the public of this kind it is strictly bona fide in every respect.

Second. It is not a fictitious subterfuge to attract the piano buyer such as warlike sales, alteration sales, going to put in new glass in the front sales, nor is it a sale of damaged pianos. It is an undisputed fact that the Eilers Co. are by far the largest distributors of pianos on the Pacific Coast, and with their immense purchasing power it is quite evident they can submit prices that preclude any possibility of legitimate competition.

In ordinary times July is the dull month in the piano trade. This July, with business conditions slightly depressed, they are far to experiment. The almighty dollar always appeals to the heart of the merchant, professional man and laboring man. They are going to pay the way for you to save many of them. When they offer this week a fine piano until recently sold by another house for $350, the most remarkable price of $172, and another, sold for years by another house for $425, at the remarkable price of $212.50, is not a proposition of this kind significant? Flushed with success during the last few days beyond their expectations, they propose to add for the next few days a special bargain proposition which will eclipse anything ever submitted by any piano house, anywhere.

One carload of one of the most distinguished high-grade pianos made in this country (New York), consisting of beautiful San Domingo mahogany, burr walnut and golden oak cases, several in art designs, absolutely guaranteed in every manner by the manufacturers and also by the Eilers Co., a magnificent piano in every respect, usually sold for $475. This entire carload will be offered during the next few days at the most remarkable price of $268.50

Free delivery in Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda. Don't hesitate. Now is the time to get money. Terms, a small payment down and a little each month. No pianos sold to dealers during this sale. There are also a few choice bargains left at $172 and $212.50.

Astounding Reduction on Pianos

Piano Buying Without Precedent at the Eilers Store

Evidence of returning prosperity. When the Eilers Music Co. advertised two carloads of high-grade pianos a few days ago at prices in some cases even below manufacturers' cost, they were surprised at the instantaneous response, and likewise extremely gratified, because it demonstrates the faith evinced by the residents of Alameda County of the genuineness of this proposition.

Second. It is not a scottish subterfuge to attract the piano buyer such as warehouse sales, alteration sales, going to put in new glass in the front sales, nor is it a sale of damaged pianos. It is an undisputed fact that the Eilers Co. are by far the largest distributors of pianos on the Pacific Coast, and with their immense purchasing power it is quite evident they can submit prices that preclude any possibility of legitimate competition.

In ordinary times July is the dullest month in the piano trade. This July, with business conditions slightly depressed, they are going to experiment. The almighty dollar always appeals to the heart of the merchant, professional man and laboring man. They are going to pay the way for you to save many of them. When they offer this week a fine piano until recently sold by another house for $350, at the most remarkable price of $172, and another, sold for years by another house for $425, at the remarkable price of $212.50, is a proposition of this kind significant. Flushed with success during the last few days beyond their expectations, they propose to add for the next few days a special bargain proposition which will eclipse anything ever submitted by any piano house, anywhere.

One carload of one of the most distinguished high-grade pianos made in this country (New York), consisting of beautiful San Domingo mahogany, burr walnut and golden oak cases, several in art designs, absolutely guaranteed in every manner by the manufacturers, and also by the Eilers Co., a magnificent piano in every respect, usually sold for $175. This entire carload will be offered during the next few days at the most remarkable price of

Free delivery in Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda. Don't hesitate. Now is the time to make money. Terms, a small payment down and a little each month. No pianos sold to dealers during this sale. There are also a few choice bargains left at $172 and $212.50.

William Jennings Bryan.

That which everybody knew would happen has happened. William Jennings Bryan has received the nomination of the Democratic party, in convention assembled at Denver, as its candidate for the Presidency of the United States.

It is the third time that he has thus been favored, and this unusual record invites a consideration of his career and personality.

Twelve years ago Mr. Bryan was not a national character. His first appearance as such was in 1896. Hard times had been pressing upon the country. Something was the matter, and a group of men had made some headway in representing that it was the demonetization of silver. Mr. Bryan was one of these, and at the Democratic national convention of that year delivered a tawdry speech at a psychological moment. It made an impression on people more or less susceptible through political hysteria and secured him the nomination for the Presidency.

Bryan was first nominated on the "silver" issue. In the campaign he laid it down as an immutable law that until silver was maintained by legal enactment at a ratio of 16 to 1 with gold there never would be any betterment of the times. The country would always be in the throes of beggary. McKinley was elected, and the immutable law of 16 to 1 soon disproved itself.

Four years later good times had been restored, and Mr. Bryan, notwithstanding the collapse of his immutable law theory, did not appear to be greatly disconcerted. He was the candidate of the Democratic party again; but there was nothing on which to hang another tawdry speech, nor any issues upon which he could appeal with much effect, and he was beaten more decisively than before.

In 1904 it was represented with such effect that the Democratic party needed another and different sort of candidate that Mr. Bryan was induced to stand aside for Alton B. Parker. But Parker, with his conservatism and respectability, did not come as near the goal as Bryan in either of his candidacies; and the idea that Democrats wanted somebody else was not borne out. This year Mr. Bryan listened to nobody and determined to carry off the nomination himself. He has done it, as we see, and in impressive fashion.

When Mr. Bryan made his "Cross of Gold" speech, in 1896, he was a poor man. He had been in Congress, but had attracted little attention there. His political trend was toward radicalism. In some other countries he would have been classified as an "Opportunist." Though his "issues" of that year were entirely discredited, he was able to maintain his hold on the Democratic party and to change its character from conservatism to radicalism. Also he began to prosper financially. Defeated at the polls in 1896, and again four years later, he had the cat quality of lighting on his feet, and to preserve his attitude before the people and his hold on the party which he had subjugated.

He enlisted for the Spanish war, and denounced the results of it. He started a weekly paper which got a half-million subscribers. He made a tour of the world, and hobnobbed with crowned heads at the same time that his fame at home was based on his championship of the "common people." He returned to get into a fishwife fight with Roger Sullivan of Illinois, eminent Democrat and committeeman, whom he attempted to read out of the Democratic party. He brought back an issue, which was government ownership of railroads. That falling upon the country like a wet blanket, he promptly revised it to government ownership of trunk lines. This in turn he dropped, for it fails to appear in his platform.

In the preliminaries of the convention that nominated him for the third time today, Mr. Bryan absolutely dominated the situation. There has never been any question that he was the dictator, as no other man ever was the dictator of a political party in this country.

Without an issue; with all his issues in past campaigns disproved and discredited; with no record of constructive statesmanship, and even with grounds for the conclusion that he does not possess that sincerity and singleness of purpose that is expected in one who aspires to such mighty honor, he has steadily gained in prestige with his followers; has prospered in material things; is hailed by a large body of Americans as a great man, and is the best-known American today, barring one. He is an amazing example of a man prospering on reverses, flourishing in defeat. He has been steadily discredited as to his theories and defeated in his political enterprises, but he has grown richer, and his fame has spread. No wonder he is the acute impersonation of complacency as he runs his roller over those who fail to render obeisance. He is warranted in accepting the idea that nothing he can do will make any difference.

A very great many people do not believe that Mr. Bryan's chances of election are any better this time than they were on either of the other occasions; but that does not obscure his light as a thrifty and acute political personality, and another defeat will not necessarily relegate him to the limbo of has-beens. So far as we have a right to judge, Mr. Bryan and his candidacy resemble Tennyson's brook, and may go on forever.

The Democratic Platform.

The platform at Denver adopted last night at 11:20 is announced to have been completed "after more than fifty-four hours of almost continuous service" on the part of the Committee on Resolutions. If the committee was that long at it, Mr. Bryan's handwriting must be shocking. For there is no doubt that the platform is what Mr. Bryan wrote it out to be.

The document shows to what straits Mr. Bryan was put, for there is not a distinct issue in the whole composition. There is a Jack Bunsby plank as to injunctions; a pledge in favor of sweeping tariff revision; something denouncing the arbitrary power of the Speaker of the House of Representatives; an attack on the President contained in a plank favoring publicity as to campaign contributions; a declaration that the convention coincides with Jefferson as to the danger of centralization of power; a plank in favor of the independence of the Philippines; and a declaration that "the conscience of the country is aroused."

All the rest is mere filling. One paragraph, "deploring the increase of office-holders," must have made everybody who handled it smile broadly. If there is anything about government that Democrats are able to endure with fortitude it is the holding of office; and one of the disquieting possibilities in connection with a Bryan success is the large number of patriots who might get maimed in the stampede for the jobs that would be redistributed.

The tariff revision plank comes nearest a definite issue of any. And yet the Democratic national convention that has ever failed to declare for tariff revision is not now remembered. This declaration is not understood by anybody to be serious. Once the attempt was made in real earnest, by a President who was too literal about such things, to carry such a pledge out, the party having been taken at its word and placed in power. The results constitute rather painful history. The effects may have passed away, but the recollection is still with the country.

The platform is more significant for its omissions than for what it contains. Where is the plank about government ownership of railroads, which issue Mr. Bryan returned from Europe with? Where is the radical anti-injunction plank which was looked for after Mr. Bryan's denunciation of the Republican plank? Where is that bid for the colored vote that was hinted at in the Commoner as a great principle of freedom and justice? And, indeed, where are all the planks and "issues" and isms that Mr. Bryan has put forth from time to time?

There are many references to the unworth of Republicans and the recreancy of Republican administrations. The deplorable prosperity the country has uniformly enjoyed under Republican domination is a thorn that is never concealed, and that Mr. Bryan appears unable to keep out of mind for an instant. While there is a great deal of pointing with pride and viewing with alarm, the "condemning without measure" of the Republican party recurs most often.

This platform, indeed, is most like an old-fashioned Democratic platform of any that Mr. Bryan has put forth. If it shall not prove very effective as a vote-getter the universal reading habit and the constitutional ability of American voters to detect chaff must be held responsible. However soft and sweet the declaration of intent may sound, the fact cannot be got away from that those presenting it lack credentials.

Culminating Incidents at Denver.

Some of the culminating incidents at Denver are likely to come in for consideration. It may be rather against the idea that Mr. Bryan was the whole thing that there should have been such delays in fetching things to a focus; but that may be explainable. It would not have looked well to put the business through like a train schedule, even had it been possible. It may even be that some of the delegates thought it was a real convention. It would not have been politics to disenchant such as these.

The spectacle of five States withholding their cheers after it was all settled is unparalleled. But the delegates from New York, Minnesota, New Jersey, Georgia and Delaware refused to be tickled to death with the situation, and remained mute while others about them were wild with excitement.

The number of "key-notes" that have been struck is altogether unprecedented. Every dispatch, almost, told of some orator or other who got a hearing and struck the "key-note of the campaign." Mr. Bell did that when temporary organization was effected, to the great joy of the Lincoln-Roosevelt League, and Mr. Clayton did it again when the organization of the body was made permanent. Mr. Bell stayed in safe paths, but Mr. Clayton is believed to have put his foot in it. His speech made charges against the President with regard to blackmailing corporations in the last campaign through Chairman Cortelyou. Alton B. Parker made the same charge four years ago, and it is well remembered what resulted. He received an excommunication from the President that took away his breath to the extent that he never replied to it.

If there is anything that the President likes it is a good scrap, and if there is anything that invites him to the fray it is an imputation as to his honor. The President is not a worshipper of precedent, and the fact that it has been considered infra dig. for a President to raise his voice in a political campaign will not deter him. If he feels that the occasion requires he will utter himself, and make observations that will go right to the meat of things. These facts being so well understood, it is something of a surprise that permanent Chairman Clayton should have been so forgetful.

The suppression of Johnson's boom was rather raw. The band failed to play when the nomination of Minnesota's favorite son was made, and its silence is charged to the direct command of the presiding officer. Chairman Clayton, who, in another connection, acknowledged himself "the son of a Confederate and a slave owner," showed deliberate intent to check the not overlarge racket that the Minnesota man's name evoked.

For a proceeding that was so definitely cut-and-dried, and acknowledged to be so, this convention managed to display considerable strenuousness. But the joy over Bryan's triumph had a distinct this-is-so-sudden air. The outcome was as well known a week or a month ago as it is now, and all pretense of Bryan and adherents that it is a victory in a contest where any other result was possible, or that it was a "squeeze through" in spite of opposing influences, is transparent enough.

NEW YORK, July 10.—By the arrival of the Swiftsure, the new light vessel, at Tompkinsville, from the builders yards at Quincy, Mass., a unique fleet which is to take a 15,000 mile cruise to the Pacific Coast received its first addition. Three lightship tenders which are of an improved sea going type, and the Columbia River and the Swiftsure, the two light vessels will comprise the fleet, which will go out in command of Captain Albert Mertz, U. AMERICAN TEAM
MAKES FINE RECORD

BISLEY, July 10.—In the international team shooting contests held here today in connection with the Olympic games the American team was in the lead at 5 o'clock in the afternoon with a total aggregating score for the three ranges of 1281. Great Britain was second with 1251 and Canada was third with 1244. In the individual revolver competition Bonus of Belgium scored 457 and Newton, England, 440. Both these scores are better than that of Sayre.

NEWPORT, R. I., July 10.—Although the will of the late William B. Leeds who died abroad, has not yet been offered for probate, it is stated on apparently good authority here that he has left a fortune of about $20,000,000. The executors of the will are said to be Commodore Lewis Cass Ledyard, the United States Trust Company of New York and Mrs. Leeds.

THINK THEY HAVE CAUGHT A CROOK

Isadore Golden Identified as a Man Who Once Had Jewelry Store.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.) SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—This morning Isadore Golden, who was arrested by Chief Elger and Charles Shelly of the Fire and Police Commissioners, when it is supposed he was about to commit burglary, was brought before the police watch and identified as one of the men who ran the New York Jewelry Company at 1704 Broadway street, which has had some curious experiences. The police are inclined to think that Golden is one of the toughest crooks they have had to deal with for some time. About the middle of last December the partner of Golden, a man named M. Boskin, when he entered the store early in the morning, found that the back of his safe had been cut out, that a sack of diamonds valued at $850 had disappeared, and that many trays of jewelry had been taken away. The thief almost financially ruined Boskin and the pair separated. Since then it has been discovered that Golden went east, and while there served a term in the Illinois penitentiary.

PLAN EXCURSION TO BRICK FACTORY

Over a thousand interested visitors who attended the demonstration at Niles on the occasion of the Western Pacific demonstration, greatly enjoyed a visit of inspection to the plant of the California Pressed Brick Company, one of the most active of Alameda county's industries. In order that those who were unable to take advantage of this excursion on a week day might see the plant in full operation, the Alameda County Development Association, through the medium of the Financial Underwriters, has arranged for a special excursion train which will leave First and Broadway next Sunday at 9:45 a. m. All who are interested in the development of the interior of the county can secure free tickets by addressing the Financial Underwriters, 1018 Broadway, Oakland.

We do not look for any further serious trouble. My husband spent a quiet, easy night and his condition is very promising now." The operation was undertaken to relieve Admiral Glass of trouble of two years standing and was performed by Dr. C. H. Denham, Dr. Herbert Moffatt and Dr. H. N. Chamberlain.

Announced

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Georgia Strong and Charles Hubbard is one of the most delightful surprises of the season. Miss Strong is the daughter of George H. Strong and one of the beauties in Oakland's most exclusive set. She is an enthusiastic motorist and was one of the first, if not the first to run her own car, handling it with grace and ease. Mr. Hubbard is associated with the Pacific States Telephone Company and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hubbard of Alameda Heights. The families of the young couple are well known on both sides of the bay where they are socially prominent. Nothing has been said about the date for the wedding and it is thought that it will not occur before the new year.

ARTIST-LECTURER TO TELL LOCAL BEAUTIES

Bert Levy to Advertise Oakland in Novel Way.

Oakland is to be advertised in a novel manner by Bert Levy, the famous cartoonist and vaudeville artist, who is just closing a successful engagement at the Oakland Orpheum. Levy today completed arrangements with Secretary Stearns of the Chamber of Commerce for the use of a large number of beautiful slides depicting features of Oakland's life and landscape. These slides talk" next year.

Levy is under contract with Martin Beck, general manager of the Orpheum Company, to deliver a series of travel talks next year in the Orpheum theaters and in other playhouses throughout the country. The lectures will be given during the forenoon of the week and are expected to constitute a unique innovation, both because of the unusual hour for their delivery and because of Levy's equipment as a lecturer and an artist. Levy has traveled the world over and has procured a great collection of slides from which stereopticon slides have been made.

Levy has been struck with the many picturesque features possessed by this city and when he learned that the Chamber of Commerce could provide him with slides illustrating the beauties of the place he at once petitioned for the privilege of using them.

DEFENDS THE PUBLIC POUND

Declares That Charges That Are Untrue Are Frequently Made by Unreasonable People.

Editor TRIBUNE: Considerable has been written for and con in the dailies at various times, apropos of the Oakland city pound and its management, while the genial, patient and faithful poundmaster remained silent, knowing that he was at all times not the aggressor; that he understood his business thoroughly and performed his duty to the city loyally and conscientiously.

SIX YEARS OF SERVICE.

Six years of commendable service to a city speaks well for any man. Six years of labor performed satisfactorily to twelve intelligent councilmen has been the poundmaster, Mr. Julius C. Zabel's, record, but six years of constant effort to please the capricious mood of the public, or of a population as large as of which Oakland can boast, is not exactly a light matter.

No one could be more human or humane with animals than Mr. Zabel; all who know him, know well he is an animal lover; big-hearted and sympathetic to a large degree. Nor do the woes of the people escape him, and they who perchance may have an animal that unfortunately did not escape the poundmaster's rope, need never worry that it is mistreated while in captivity and under the supervision of the poundmaster. For ever his duties must be performed with exactness; this much must be enforced with rigidity that some persons mistake for cruelty—but cruel, Mr. Zabel could never be, nor will he allow it of his men.

IMAGINARY WRONGS.

Very often the imaginary wrongs of persons are the most difficult phases with which the poundmaster must cope. If space would permit, quite a number of illustrations could be given, nevertheless, one with sufficient realizing in others a similarity; for instance, Recently a lady called at the city pound and with dramatic vehemence demanded her pet dog. The poundmaster asked her:

"What breed is your dog?"

"It's a black dog," answered the lady.

"I'm yes, we have one black dog in the pound," said the poundmaster.

"Yes, it's my dog."

"When did you lose your dog, Madam?"

"Your men stole it yesterday."

"Pardon me, Madam, but my men do not steal dogs, they have enough to do to catch the dogs that are running on the streets without license tags," explained Mr. Zabel.

"I know you have my pet."

"Has your black dog a long or a short tail?" inquired the poundmaster.

"It has a beautiful long tail," was the information from the lady. At that moment she gained sight of the black dog and in a new paroxysm of grief excitedly exclaimed: "Oh! there is my pet; look at its long silky hair; that's my poor doggie!"

"Is your dog a male or a female?"

"Oh! it's a female!"

"Well, Madam, then your dog is not in the pound."

"Oh, yes it is and I'm—"

"But, this dog cannot be your dog, because this black dog has a short, stubby tail."

"Oh, you cruel, cruel man—you cut my poor doggie's tail off!"

"Impossible, Madam; it is utterly impossible that I could have cut off a dog's tail and that it has healed in one day."

"Oh, I don't care—you cut it off just the same and I'm going to—"

"Madam, this black dog you claim is a male."

"You are a cruel man and you cut off my doggie's tail," sideswinded the lady.

AT THE CITY HALL.

"Granted, Madam; I cut your dog's tail off and it healed in one day, but please tell me how I could have changed a female into a male?"

Away the lady almost flew, with "I'll report you to the city."

Telephones were busy for a while between the City Hall and the city pound, but when the city pound informed the City Hall that it could not change the sex of a dog in one day, the City Hall was perfectly contented.

INDICT 22 UNDER ANTI-BETTING LAW

NEW YORK, July 10.—Indictments which, if sustained on trial, may send 22 men, charged with bookmaking, to jail for one year each were reported by the Kings county Grand Jury today under the recently enacted anti-betting law.

The indictments followed in inquiry extending over several days and marked the culmination of the enforcement measures adopted by the Kings county authorities immediately after the passage of the law at a special session of the legislature, which had been convened by Governor Hughes after the bills had failed of passage at the regular session. Under the law, which makes the offense charged in the indictments a misdemeanor, only a prison sentence may be imposed upon conviction.

that it had a man at the head of the pound and not a magician.

TAFT TALKS WITH G. O. P. TREASURER

HOT SPRINGS, Va., July 10.—Wm. H. Taft today had his first conference with Jos. R. Sheldon, newly elected treasurer of the Republican National Committee.

He also talked at length with Chairman Frank H. Hitchcock of the Republican National Committee, Wm. Nelson Cromwell of New York and Postmaster General Meyer.

NOT TO EVADE LAW.

"I am not looking for any means of evading the law," declared Sheldon today when questioned concerning the way the campaign fund publicity law of New York would apply to the funds of the national committee. He said there would be ways of having contributions made in various parts of the country without putting them on the books of the treasurer in New York, but he brushed aside any such suggestions.

BANKER-CONVICT AGAIN IN STRIPES

Dalzell Brown Expects Call From San Francisco in Two Weeks.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—Dalzell Brown, the banker-convict, was returned to San Quentin yesterday after an absence of nearly two months, during which he was giving testimony in the Barnet case.

Accompanied by Deputy Sheriff H. J. Brown, the banker-convict, was returned to San Quentin yesterday after an absence of nearly two months, during which he was giving testimony in the Barnet case.

On his arrival at San Quentin, Brown carefully doffed his handsome gray wig, and wrapping it in a paper, deposited it in one of the pockets of the automobile.

GIVEN STATE BATH.

Once inside the prison, he was put to the barber's chair and was shorn of his mustache and incipient beard. The operation being ended, he was subjected to a bath in a solution of carbolic acid in order to protect the other guests of the State against possible infection.

Brown seemed to be quite happy in spite of his environment. Smilingly he informed the men who attended him that he would remain for two weeks only, at the end of which period he had arranged to be subpoenaed again, returning to San Francisco.

He was first committed to the prison May 14th, and was taken out on a subpoena May 19th. Since that time he has been living at the San Francisco county jail. For the present he will resume his duties as janitor of the prison courtyard.

CONTROL OF RAILROAD HAS CHANGED HANDS

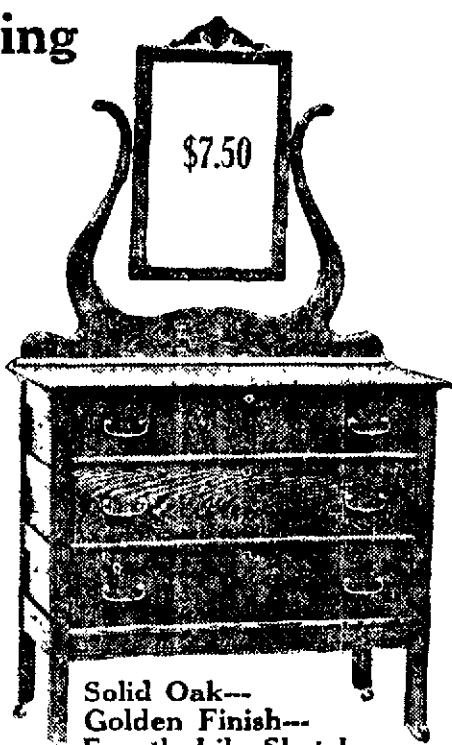

BOSTON, July 9.—The Boston and Maine Railroad, it was learned tonight, is no longer controlled by the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company. Shares of the Boston and Maine, to the number of about 11,000, owned by corporations controlled by the New Haven road have been sold to John L. Billard of Meriden, Conn. The sale took place on June 30.

The decision of the New Haven railroad to sell the Boston and Maine stock was reached at a meeting of the New Haven directors, the purpose being to avoid the annoyances of litigation and an indisposition to combat the commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Heard on the Street

"Where are you going?" asked a young lady from one of Oakland's department stores of another young lady just about to take a vacation.

"I'm going to Smith Bros. for some films for my kodak," was the reply.

"Is that the best place for kodak supplies?"

"Well, I guess. This is the fourth year I've got my films there, and when I get back I hurry there with my cartridges, anxious to get my pictures. Always good, too; they know the secret of how to get the very best out of my films."

"And the cost?"

"Nothing, compared to the satisfaction I get. Many times a year I get out my photo album and live my vacation over again."

Now, what do you know about that?

Girl Thief's Loot

Packed in Go-Cart

CHICAGO—Wheeling a child's go-cart containing things stolen from homes she had entered, Annie Wilson, 9 years old, of No. 333 Hewes street, Williamsburg, was arrested by detectives of the Clymer street police station. In the station the child told a pitiful story of a sick mother and an ailing younger sister whom she was trying to support, and the police believed at first they had discovered a genuine case of destitution. Investigation showed, however, the girl was one of the most remarkable child thieves the police ever have caught. Her mother, instead of being ill in a hospital, it was learned, was serving a sentence of six months in the workhouse, having been sent there for encouraging the morals of her children. For several months the police of the Clymer street station have received reports that robberies had been committed by a little girl in the home section of Williamsburg. Patrolman Miller saw Mrs. Mary Waldron of No. 286 Hewes street struggling with a little girl in the street and ran up to see what the trouble was. The woman told him she recognized the child as the one who had called in her home about a month ago and asked for Mrs. Riley. When the child left, she said, she missed several rings and a dress. The girl was wheeling a little go-cart when the woman seized her, and in the police station the detectives lifted the cover which the child had placed over the cart. They found a gold watch and chain, two hats, a child's red coat, two babies' hats, two children's dresses, a gold rope chain and locket and a gold crucifix. When asked to give her name the girl said she was Annie Riley. She confessed afterward, however, her name was Wilson and her mother was in the workhouse. She said a woman had taught her to steal and that she had accompanied her on her tours of depredation. At first the girl pretended not to know where the woman lived, but finally she volunteered to take the detectives to her home. The prisoner took the policemen to the home of Mrs. Julia Campbell of No. 340 Clymer street, and said Mrs. Campbell had been with her when she entered the houses and took whatever she was able to get away with quickly. Mrs. Campbell was arrested and her home searched. The police found a beaded dress and a fur boa, which the child said she had stolen the day before. Mrs. Campbell denied she had taught the child to steal or that she knew anything of the girl's robberies. She said about a month ago the girl brought the dress and boa to her home, saying her mother had been sent to the hospital and the family needed the money. She thereupon bought the goods. Mrs. Campbell was locked up on a charge of receiving stolen goods and the little girl was sent to the rooms of the Children's Society.

She Wrote: "How to Keep a Husband" But Her Hubby Got Away After All

CHICAGO—Mrs. Frances Devey Park will soon tell her tale of woe to Judge Gibbons and ask for a permanent decree of divorce. Then he proposes to celebrate her return to single blessedness. Mrs. Park has written songs with such titles as "Just Suppose," "Ditties," "If I Had You" and last, but not least, a dissertation on "How to Keep a Husband." In her last verses she said a husband could be retained if you know how to cook him, and suggested that he would never improve if "frozen" or "roasted." Incidentally she composed him to a lobster, which she says is delicate and "changes in hot water." Here is Mrs. Park's marital attitude, or her composition on how "not" to keep the head of the family, which she said she composed one morning early while sitting in Washington Park and musing over her fate: I'M GLAD, I'm glad I have had to suffer For wrongs that another has done, And others my laurels have won, For sympathy walks beside me, And bids the tear drops fall, And tender thoughts now guide me, To help when others call. I'm glad I have had to weep, I'm glad I know how to weep, When debts crowd round deep, For my love and understanding, Within my heart is life. They call to my soul demanding Justice for all things in life. Mrs. Park alleges in her complaint that Albert E. Park, her husband, a lawyer and promoter, was affected with the affinity craze. The husband also is accused of having leveled a revolver at the head of his spouse on one occasion. Park also must answer charges of cruel and inhuman treatment, desertion and non-support. Mrs. Park was married in January, 1905. Her husband left her a year ago. Since then she has not heard from him until he was located in Denver, where the legal documents were served upon him. "When I get my divorce," said Mrs. Park, "I want to live to do some good and go through life without causing tears. Then I think I have done my part."

WOMAN LAWYER GETS $30,000 FOR WINNING $3,000,000 SUIT

CHICAGO—A Chicago woman attorney received a fee of $30,000. She is Miss Mary E. Miller, who successfully prosecuted a suit on behalf of the grandchildren of William Brown for the distribution of the $3,000,000 estate left by the decedent. Under the provisions of the will the estate was to be held in trust until the youngest of the grandchildren reached the age of 30 years. That was the construction placed upon it by Azarlin T. Gal, the administrator, who contested the suit for immediate distribution. The suit, which was filed by Miss Miller last September, was based on the claim of perpetuity. She argued that under the construction of the trustee the estate might never be distributed among the heirs it was intended to benefit. The youngest of the grandchildren, John Brown Lloyd, is now 22 years old, and the oldest, William Brown Lloyd, is 32. Miss Miller argued that should any of the heirs die before the youngest reached the age of 30 years an injustice would be done them. Judge Carpenter, who heard the suit, ruled that the trustee's construction of the will would make the estate vest at too remote a period, and ordered a distribution of it now. Miss Miller formerly lived at Marshall, Mich.

Schoolgirl's Vanishing Reveals Deep Deceiving

NEW YORK—Unable longer to keep up the deception she had practiced on her parents for five months, Alvina Estelle Edwards, 16 years old, of 24½ Windsor place, Brooklyn, ran away from home on last Wednesday. Her parents asked the police to send out a general alarm for her. It was an unusual story of girlish pride that was revealed in the disappearance. Alvina had told her parents in last February that she had been graduated from Public School No. 145, at Seventh avenue and Seventeenth street, and that she had been admitted to Erasmus Hall High School. The fact that the girl had failed to pass the examination for admittance into the high school, and had not been graduated from the grammar school. But she could not bear to tell her parents the truth. She informed them gleefully that she had passed the high school examination, and from February until last Wednesday she left her home five mornings every week, ostensibly to go to school. So well did the girl dissemble that her parents never suspected the deception. Every afternoon she returned home with her school books, and she spent several hours every evening studying what she said were home lessons. The mother of the girl knew that in June the grammar school from which she believed her daughter had been graduated would hold its commencement exercises. She knew also that the present graduating class would combine with the class graduated in February in carrying out the June program. Early this month Mrs. Edwards asked her daughter when the exercises would be held, and the girl gave the date as June 24, the next morning. Alvina donned a new white dress and packed many of her belongings in a suitcase. Mrs. Edwards saw her leaving the house with the case, and asked her why she was taking it away. "Oh, we're going to give a play, and I'm going to play the leading part," the girl replied.

TWO NICE LITTLE MERMAIDS PLEAD FOR THEIR CLOTHES

PHILADELPHIA—Two little girls, not more than half way through their teens, walked shyly up to the Fairmount Park guardhouse near the Queen Lane pumping station yesterday morning and approached Park Guard Lynch. "Please, Mr. Guard," said the bolder of the two, "can't we have our clothes?" Lynch tried to look solemn, but it was no use. He gave a gulp or two, then, blushing as furiously as the girls, led the way into the guardhouse and pointed out a pile of things which looked all lace and gauze. Still speechless, the guard pointed to the nameless articles and told the girl to help themselves. Quickly they picked out two Merry Widows, two pairs of shoes, two undershirts, two pairs of black stockings, the kind with holes all through them, you know, and a number of other articles with fringes of lace and what-not, the names of which Lynch afterward pretended not to know. "Now, I don't want you girls to play mermaid no more," said Lynch, as they turned to leave. "We won't," they promised, cheerfully. "And, Mr. Guard," one of them hesitatingly added, "it was ever so nice of you to let us have our big bath towels. I don't know how we would have gone home if you hadn't." And again Lynch blushed. It was all the fault of the Bachelors' Club. There were even some of the

WOMEN BAND TOGETHER TO PROTECT ANIMALS

MRS. JAMES SPEYER, president of the Women's Auxiliary, A. S. P. C. A., New York.

What women can do when they are banded together for determined effort was proved by the complete success of the work horse parade in New York recently, which was entirely managed by the Women's Auxiliary of the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Mrs. James Speyer, wife of the well-known banker, having been in charge. Mrs. Speyer's activities in various philanthropic and humane enterprises have been so great and so long continued that there was no reason for surprise when she was elected president of the Women's Auxiliary, now entering upon a new career of usefulness. At the same meeting Mrs. Gordon Knox Bell was chosen first vice-president; Miss Marie Winthrop, treasurer; and Mrs. R. C. Wadsworth, secretary. The work of the Women's Auxiliary has now been placed in charge of committees, the heads of which are in frequent conference with Mrs. Speyer. Mrs. Bell has assumed direction of the out-of-doors work of the auxiliary. Her committee has already made possible the establishment of four additional receiving stations, where sick, disabled, or estrayed animals can be cared for. Miss Ella Mabel Clark has undertaken the more complete organization of the Young Defenders League, which now possesses an enrolled membership in all parts of the country numbering more than one hundred thousand. Mrs. T. L. Munson is in charge of an educational campaign, together with the preparation of leaflets, booklets, etc., relating to the care of animals and their proper distribution.

TEACH MOTHERS THE GENTLE AND USEFUL ART OF COOKING IS OBJECT OF SCHOOL IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO—A cooking class for mothers is the latest thing in vacation schools. Such a class—the first of its kind in Chicago—will be started at the Hamline school, West Forty-eighth and Bishop streets. All the mothers of the vicinity who would like to learn some short cuts and money saving wrinkles in cookery, with healthfulness always a prime consideration, are being invited to attend. The invitation has spread among the members of the Mothers' Club of the Hamline school and is being transmitted by them to other mothers. According to the plans, which are not yet entirely completed, the class will be there with the best instruction that can be had for the benefit of those mothers who would like to avail themselves of it. There will be one lesson a week. Each lesson will treat of the preparation of substantial food in a palatable way and with the least possible waste. The classes will be conducted by experienced instructors who are well up in the chemistry of food and its actual cost. Besides the instruction from the director the school will serve as a meeting ground for mothers in which to exchange suggestions and advice. It is the theory of the organizers that many a mother has inherited or found out for herself wholesome economies which have been justified in long practice and which would be beneficial to the communities if they could be circulated. The school will be a clearing house for such ideas, which will be discussed at the meetings. Fancy cooking and elaborate dishes will be left out of the program. "We have great hopes for the class," said Mrs. A. W. Bryant, president of the Vacation Schools Association. "The enterprise will have the support of the Chicago Woman's Club and will be made of the greatest possible assistance to the work of preparing nourishing food at moderate cost." "This is a problem faced daily by thousands of women. Most of them solve it with their woman's good sense and instinct, and they solve it well. The point is that it would be an easier matter and less of a daily grind, to get the meals if they had a conscious basis upon which to work. It is always easier to do things if the person who is doing them 'knows why'." "And no one woman knows all there is to cooking; there is always the chance for learning something new which will make the work lighter and more pleasurable, and likely more economical. The exact plans for the class will depend upon the results of an investigation now being made to see how many mothers will have time and inclination to belong. The cooking classes among children have been successful, and I see no reason why this mother's class should not prove as desirable that other similar classes will be established next summer. The Hamline school, with its Mothers' Club, has been among the foremost in the city in its work in domestic economy.

Bath for Pa for? Nix! The Creek Would Do for Him

PENNSBURG, PA.—Cleanliness may be the next great thing along for generations without bath rooms, and they could see no reason why the good old customs of the past should be changed for the sake of a youthful pastor, who might become infected with new-fangled notions. All of course, admitted that bathing was a good thing if not carried to excess, and some avowed that the pump and tub were good enough for anybody. But the idea of fixing up a room in a house for the special purpose of bathing was at variance with their methods of economy and frugality. There is abundant water in Swamp creek, Ridge Valley creek and the Berkleimer for every one to take a bath without going to the bother and expense of constructing a bathroom, they said. The congregational meetings were held to Swamp creek, and the vote was in favor of a bathroom and 74 against, while at Keeler's church there was also a decisive majority against the bath room.

DEMONSTRATION IS GIVEN MRS. JULIA WARD HOME

One of the most affecting features reported from the Boston Bazaar meeting of the G. F. W. C. was that of the appearance of the great old woman, Mrs. Julia Ward Howe. As she came down the aisle, leaning upon the arm of her daughter, every woman in the vast throng in Symphony hall arose to her feet and remained standing until the venerable woman was seated. Mrs. O. M. McNair of Taunton, Okla., has been appointed dispensary agent for the capital of the Cherokee nation. She is the first woman to hold such an office.

SHE DON'T WANT TO BEGIN WHERE PARENTS LEFT OFF

Mr. and Mrs. Elihu Root Jr. seem to be a very sensible young couple and are beginning life in a six-room flat on the top floor of a New York building, with no elevator to carry them up, and only one maid servant. Mrs. Root was the daughter of President Woolsey Stryker of Hamilton College and does not believe that young people should want to begin where their parents left off.

HUSBAND SAYS WIFE SHOT HIM ACCIDENTALLY

POLICE DETAIN WOMAN IN PRISON PENDING INQUIRY

Not Satisfied With Explanation of the Shooting

(Special to THE TRIBUNE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—J. D. Kendall, who inside of a dozen hours has experienced transition from a night of pleasure to a cot in the Central Emergency Hospital as the consequence of a shot under the right arm which he received from his wife at their apartments, 155 Scott street at an early hour this morning appears to be in no wise concerned over the outcome of the injury.

SAYS IT WAS ACCIDENT

Kendall asserts that the shooting was accidental and that he is sorry for the annoyance which his wife has been occasioned by the notoriety which she has thus far received.

Mrs. Kendall is locked up in the city prison, but no person is allowed to converse with her. Although the officers declare that she says the shooting was purely accidental.

PECULIAR FEATURES

Kendall is a man of 35. He is of medium frame and was formerly an attaché of the United Railroads. Regardless of the unanimity of the star performers in the episode which might have ended in a tragedy, the shooting is considered by the police to have some peculiar features.

KENDALL'S STATEMENT.

Kendall, in speaking of the matter said: "My wife and I had just returned from a good dinner after having been at the theater. I had a revolver in my pocket and took it out and laid it on a shelf. She and I were joking and chatting pleasantly. I was joking her about some of her sweethearts. She did not know the gun was loaded. In fact it wasn't loaded when she saw it the last time, but since then several cartridges were put in it. She did not know how to use the gun and in some way it exploded. The bullet was taken out. I am not suffering any pain. I am a native of Kentucky. Some of my children are in the East. I am sorry that my wife has to suffer for this."

IS FATALLY INJURED BY BANDITS

San Jose Druggist Receives Mortal Wounds While Traveling With Single Companion Through Mexico.

SAN JOSE, July 10.—According to a letter received last night by the Mercury, Salvador Aguirre, a druggist who has been employed both here and at Chicago, is dying at a civil hospital in Mexico from injuries received in a fight with bandits in which he was shot through the lungs and through the legs.

The letter is signed by Fred Hendrick and states that Aguirre gave him the names of relatives in San Jose, but that in the excitement he forgot to give the newspaper to inform them of the vicinity with whom the unfortunate man is connected.

TRAVELING THROUGH MOUNTAINS

Hendrick and Aguirre, who is a brother of the famous professional bicycle rider, Fred Hendrick, were in the mountains making a trip to the little known part of Mexico. He and his companion, who was a very experienced mountaineer, were the cause of the attack by bandits.

When the letter was written Aguirre was in a civil hospital at Villa Guzman, near the scene of the robbery. He was in a very bad way, but he was able to write a few lines to his family.

WILL RUEF BE SENT TO JAIL?

Attorneys Wonder if Judge Lawlor Will Order Him Imprisoned When Next Trial Starts.

(Special to The Tribune.)
SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—A question which is being discussed in legal circles at the present time is whether or not Abraham Ruef, when he comes up for trial before Judge Lawlor Wednesday on a charge of bribing Supervisor Furey in the Parkside franchise case, will be sent to jail pending the trial notwithstanding that he was recently admitted to bail in giving securities in the sum of many thousands of dollars.

It is generally admitted here that a motion to commit the defendant to jail will be made by the prosecution at the opening of the case, but it rests with Judge Lawlor who will decide to grant or deny the motion.

The motion of Lawlor will be awaited with the greatest interest by many leading attorneys, holding that Ruef has already given sufficient securities for the charge against him.

ON BAIL OF $5.
There is another circumstance which makes the present situation peculiar and it is the fact that the amount of the bail set for Ruef at the coming trial on the charge specified is only $5. As the trial will continue undisturbed for several weeks, it is considered by disinterested attorneys that to send the defendant to jail under such circumstances would be a case of persecution more especially when he has already so well provided for the case which Ruef has produced and which have been accepted by Judge Murasky.

In the event of the jury disagreeing or of Ruef being acquitted of this charge in which Ruef is alleged to have played the part of the lamb, he will be entitled, under Judge Murasky's order, to his liberty until further trials take place on the same matter which have been accepted by Judge Murasky.

OPINION OF AGH

Speaking on the matter today Attorney Henry Agh, leading counsel for Mr. Ruef, said:

"I don't see how Judge Lawlor for a moment could think of sending Mr. Ruef to jail. He didn't do it before in the Ford case and in this instance Mr. Ruef has already given bail in the sum of $5,000."

Ruef himself said: "I cannot tell what will be done in the matter. One may not tell what will take place about this time."

National Democratic Party Platform as Adopted at the Denver Convention

Declarations Dictated by W. J. Bryan Are Enthusiastically Endorsed

DENVER, July 10.—The following is the full text of the platform adopted by the Democratic National Convention early this morning:

The representatives of the Democratic Party, in national convention assembled, reaffirm our belief in, and pledge our loyalty to the principles of the party.

We rejoice at the increasing signs of an awakening throughout the country. We believe that the hour has come when the people will demand a government that will protect their rights and interests, and will not be controlled by the interests of a few.

A conscience of the nation is now aroused to free the government from the grasp of the money power. It is a business asset of the favor-seeking corporations; it must become again a people's government, and be administered in the interest of the people.

We believe in the principle of "Equal Rights to All and Special Privileges to None."

We believe in the principle of "Equal Rights to All and Special Privileges to None."

Office Holders

Coincident with the enormous increase in the expenditures of the government, the number of office holders has increased. During the year 1907, there were added to the list of office holders in the last six years of the Republican administration the total number of new offices created, aside from the many commissions, has been 25,000, and the total number of office holders is now 100,000. We believe that the government should be run on a business basis, and that the number of office holders should be reduced to a minimum.

National Economy

The Republican Congress in the session ended has made appropriations totaling $1,000,000,000, exceeding the total expenditures of the past fiscal year by $300,000,000 and leaving a deficit of more than $1,000,000,000 for the fiscal year. We believe that the government should be run on a business basis, and that the number of office holders should be reduced to a minimum.

Power of Speaker

The House of Representatives was declared by the fathers of the Constitution to be the popular branch of our government, responsible to the public will. The House of Representatives, as constituted in 1789, was a deliberative and legislative body, responsive to the will of a majority of its members, but has come to be the absolute dominion of the speaker, who is elected by the House and who is responsible to no one but himself. We believe that the House should be a deliberative and legislative body, responsive to the will of a majority of its members, but has come to be the absolute dominion of the speaker, who is elected by the House and who is responsible to no one but himself.

Patronage Misuse

We condemn, as a violation of the principles of the party, the action of the present chief executive in using the patronage of his high office to secure the nomination of one of his cabinet officers. A forced succession in the presidency is contrary to the principles of the party, and we believe that the president should be elected by the people.

Campaign Contributions

We demand federal legislation forever prohibiting the partnership which has existed between corporations of the country and the Republican party under the expressed or implied promise of a return for the contribution of great sums of money. We believe that the government should be run on a business basis, and that the number of office holders should be reduced to a minimum.

duct their campaign in the coming contest with vast sums of money wrung from favor-seeking corporations. We call attention to the fact that the recent Republican national convention at Chicago refused, when the issue was presented to it, to declare against such practices.

We pledge the Democratic party to a law preventing any corporation from contributing to a campaign fund and to a law requiring the disclosure of the amount above a reasonable minimum and providing for the publication before election of all such contributions.

Rights of States

Believing, with Jefferson, in "the support of the State governments in all their rights as the most competent administration of the people's affairs," and in the preservation of the general government in its whole constitutional vigor as the sheet anchor of our peace and safety, we are opposed to the centralization implied in these suggestions, now frequently made, that the powers of the general government should be extended by judicial construction. There is no twilight zone between the nation and the State by which exploiting interests can take refuge from both; and it is as necessary that the federal government shall exercise the powers delegated to it as that the State government shall use the authority reserved to them, but we insist that federal remedies for the regulation of interstate commerce and for the prevention of private monopoly shall be added to, not substituted for, State remedies.

The Tariff

We welcome the belated promise of tariff reform now offered by the Republican party in tardy recognition of the righteousness of the Democratic position on this question, but the people cannot safely intrust the execution of this important work to a party which is so deeply obligated to the highly protected interests as is the Republican party. We believe that the government should be run on a business basis, and that the number of office holders should be reduced to a minimum.

We favor immediate revision of the tariff by the reduction of import duties. Articles entering into competition with the products of the United States should be placed upon the free list, and articles requiring protection should be placed upon the tariff at a rate which will not injure the domestic industry.

We favor immediate revision of the tariff by the reduction of import duties. Articles entering into competition with the products of the United States should be placed upon the free list, and articles requiring protection should be placed upon the tariff at a rate which will not injure the domestic industry.

The Trusts

A private monopoly is indefensible and intolerable. We, therefore, favor the vigorous reform of the antitrust laws, and the enforcement of such laws as will prevent the creation of such monopolies. We believe that the government should be run on a business basis, and that the number of office holders should be reduced to a minimum.

Railroad Regulation

We assert the right of courts to exercise complete control over interstate commerce and the right of each State to exercise control over commerce within its borders. We demand such enlargement of the Interstate Commerce Commission as may be necessary to compel railroads to perform their duties as common carriers and prevent discrimination and extortion.

We favor the efficient supervision and rate regulation of railroads engaged in interstate commerce. To this end we recommend the valuation of railroads by the Interstate Commerce Commission, such valuation to take into consideration the physical value of the property, original cost and the cost of reproduction and all elements of value that will render the valuation fair and just.

We favor such legislation as will prohibit the railroads from engaging in business with their shippers; also legislation which will assume such reduction in transportation rates as such conditions will permit, care being taken to avoid reduction that would compel a reduction of wages, prevent adequate service or do injustice to legitimate investments. We heartily approve the laws prohibiting the sale and the rebate, and we favor any further necessary legislation to restrain, correct and prevent such abuses.

We favor such legislation as will increase the power of the Interstate Commerce Commission, giving to it the initiative with reference to rates and transportation charges put into effect by the railroad companies, and permitting the Interstate Commerce Commission, on its own initiative, to declare a rate illegal and an undue preference, and to require the railroad company to comply with such decision.

We favor the enactment of a law giving to the Interstate Commerce Commission the power to inspect proposed railroad tariff rates or schedules before they shall take effect, and if they be found to be unreasonable, to initiate an adjustment thereof.

Banking

The panic of 1907, coming without any legitimate excuse when the Republican party had for a decade been in complete control of the federal government, furnishes additional proof that it is either unwilling or incompetent to protect the interests of the general public. It has so lined the country to Wall street that the sins of the speculators are visited upon the whole people. While refusing to vacate the wealth producers from speculation at the hands of the stock gamblers and speculators in farm products, it has deposited treasury funds without interest and without competition in favorite banks. It has used an emergency for which it is largely responsible, to force through Congress a bill changing the basis of the bank currency and inviting market manipulation and has failed to give to the 15,000,000 depositors of the country protection in their savings.

We believe that in so far as the needs of commerce require an emergency currency such currency should be issued, controlled by the federal government, and loaned on adequate security to national and State banks. We pledge ourselves to legislation under which national banks shall be required to establish a guaranty fund for the prompt payment of the depositors of any insolvent national bank under an equitable system which shall be available to all banking institutions desiring to use it.

We favor a postal savings bank, if the guaranteed bank cannot be secured and that it be constitutional so as to keep the deposited money in the communities where it is established, but we condemn the policy of the Republican party in proposing postal savings banks under a plan of conduct by which they will aggregate the deposits of rural communities and redistribute the same under a plan of charge in the banks of Wall street, thus depleting the circulation medium of the producing regions and unjustly favoring the speculative markets.

Income Tax

We favor an income tax as part of our revenue system, and we urge the submission of a constitutional amendment, specifying that the federal government shall collect tax upon individual and corporate incomes, to the end that wealth may bear its proportionate share of the burdens of the federal government.

Injunctions

The courts of justice are the bulwark of our liberties and we yield to none in our purpose to maintain their dignity and authority. We believe that the government should be run on a business basis, and that the number of office holders should be reduced to a minimum.

We believe that the government should be run on a business basis, and that the number of office holders should be reduced to a minimum.

Eight Hour Day

The expanding organization of industry makes it essential that there should be no abridgment of the right of wage earners and producers to organize for the protection of wages and the improvement of labor conditions to the end that such labor organizations and their members should not be regarded as illegal combinations in restraint of trade.

We favor the eight-hour day on all government work.

We pledge the Democratic party to the enactment of a law by Congress so far as the federal jurisdiction extends for a general employers' liability covering injuries to body or loss of life of employees.

Merchant Marine

We believe in the upbuilding of the American merchant marine without new or additional burdens upon the people and without boundaries from the public treasury.

The Navy

The constitutional provision that a navy shall be provided and maintained means an adequate navy, and we believe that the interests of this country would be best served by having a navy sufficient to defend the coasts of this country and protect American citizens wherever their rights may be in jeopardy.

Protection of Citizens

We pledge ourselves to insist upon the just and lawful protection of our citizens at home and abroad, and to use all proper methods to secure for them, whether by treaty or otherwise, the right of travel and sojourn in denied to American citizens, or recognition is withheld from American passports by any country on the ground of race or creed, or on the basis of existing restrictions, and if, under existing restrictions, the removal of such unjust discriminations.

Panama Canal

We believe that the Panama canal will prove of great value to our country and favor its speedy completion.

of government, ambitions and interests akin to our own.

Asiatic Immigration

We favor full protection, by both national and State governments, within their respective spheres, of all foreigners residing in the United States under treaty, but we are opposed to the admission of Asiatic immigrants who cannot be assimilated with our population, or whose presence among us would raise a race issue and involve us in diplomatic controversies with Oriental powers.

The Conclusion

The Democratic party stands for democracy; the Republican party has drawn to itself all that is aristocratic and plutocratic.

The Democratic party is the champion of equal rights and opportunities to all; the Republican party is the party of privilege and private monopoly.

We invite the co-operation of all, regardless of previous political affiliation or past difference, who desire to preserve a government of the people, by the people and for the people and who favor such an administration of the government as will insure as far as human wisdom can, that each citizen shall draw from society a reward commensurate with his contribution to the welfare of society.

On Education

The Democratic party favors the extension of agricultural, mechanical and industrial education. We, therefore, favor the establishment of district agricultural experiment stations, the secondary agricultural and mechanical colleges in the several States.

Election of Senators

We favor the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people, and regard it as the gateway to other national reforms.

Oklahoma

We welcome Oklahoma to the sisterhood of States and heartily congratulate her on the auspicious beginning of a great career.

Other Territories

The national Democratic party has for the last sixteen years labored for the admission of Arizona and New Mexico as separate States of the federal union, and recognizing that each possesses every qualification to successfully maintain separation from the federal government, we favor the immediate admission of these territories as separate States.

Grazing Lands

The establishment of rules and regulations, if any such are necessary, in relation to free grazing upon the public lands outside of forest or other reservations, and the disposal of such lands, should be left to the people of the States respectively in which the lands may be situated.

Waterways

Water furnishes the cheapest means of transportation, and the national government, having the control of navigable rivers and sounds of our country with each other, by artificial canals, with a view to perfecting a system of inland waterways, to be navigated by vessels of standard draft.

We favor the co-ordination of the various services of the government connected with waterways in one service for the purpose of aiding in the completion of such a system of inland waterways, and we favor the creation of a fund ample for continuous work, which shall be conducted under the direction of a commission of experts to be authorized by law.

Post Roads

We favor the federal aid to the State and local authorities in the construction and maintenance of post roads.

Telegraph and Telephone

We pledge the Democratic party to the enactment of a law to regulate the rates and services of telegraph and telephone companies, and to the creation of a commission of experts to be authorized by law.

The Philippines

We condemn the experiment in imperialism as an inexcusable blunder which has involved us in an enormous expense, brought us weakness instead of strength, and left our nation open to the charge of abandoning a fundamental doctrine of self-government.

We favor an immediate declaration of the nation's purpose to recognize the independence of the Philippine Islands as soon as a stable government can be established, such independence to be guaranteed by us as we guarantee the independence of Cuba, until the realization of the independence of the Philippines can be secured by other powers.

Hawaii

We favor the application of principles in the land laws of the United States to the newly acquired territory, Hawaii, to the end that the public lands of that territory may be held and utilized for the benefit of bona fide homesteaders.

Alaska and Porto Rico

We demand for the people of Alaska and Porto Rico the full enjoyment of the rights and privileges of a territorial form of government, and the appointment of officials appointed to administer the government of all our territories and the District of Columbia should be thoroughly qualified by previous bona fide residence.

Panama Canal

We believe that the Panama canal will prove of great value to our country and favor its speedy completion.

Pan-American Affairs

The Democratic party recognizes the importance and advantages of developing the closer ties of Pan-American friendship and commerce between the United States and her sister nations of Latin-America, and favors the taking of such steps, consistent with Democratic policies, for acquaintance, greater mutual confidence and larger exchange of trade as will bring lasting benefits not only to the United States, but to this group of American republics, having consultations, formal

REPUBLICAN COUNTY COMMITTEE FIXES APPORTIONMENT OF DELEGATES

Next County Convention Will Consist of 225 Delegates
---General Satisfaction Is Expressed Over the Apportionment.

The Republican County Central Committee last night apportioned delegates to the forthcoming county Republican convention. The time and place for the holding of the gathering will be determined later.

INSTRUCTED TO FILE.

In the absence of Secretary H. S. Anderson, who is in the East, A. Larsen acted as secretary and that gentleman with the chairman, George W. Reed, who was present, was instructed to file with the Board of Supervisors the petition to allow the party a place on the primary ticket, setting forth, at the same time, the apportionment of delegates, the blanks as to the time and place of holding the convention to be later filled. There will be 225 delegates in the convention, and the apportionment as to districts appears elsewhere in connection with this article.

VOTE DOWN PRECINCTS.

The meeting was called to order by George W. Reed, the chairman, who was warmly welcomed back from Chicago where he was a delegate to the National Republican convention.

Charles Gale of Pleasanton moved that the appointment be made according to the voting precincts, stating that he believed it to be the consensus of opinion that so far as the county districts be represented were concerned that this would be the most equitable apportionment and an equalization of all districts. In this he was supported by Committeeman Mowrey, but the motion was lost by the vote of the Oakland and Berkeley representatives.

Acting Secretary Larsen then read a draft of the proposed call and appointment of delegates.

WANTS 52D BLANKETED.
Richardson of Berkeley objected, stating that he represented the Fifty-second Assembly district which is located in Berkeley. He did not want to have that district cut out. That section would like to come into the convention with the pride of having the largest delegation. He wanted Berkeley blanketed and moved that the apportionment be founded along the lines of assembly districts. He wanted to know why Alameda was not like Berkeley, cut in two, as also why there was not a splitting of the Forty-eighth district. He moved an amendment to the recommendation in the call.

Robert Greig of Berkeley seconded the motion.

BERKELEY CUT FOUR YEARS AGO.

J. P. Cook, who had a proxy for H. S. Anderson, said that four years ago the Fifty-second assembly was cut into five parts. For the present apportionment the lines of supervisorial districts were being followed. The Republican County Central committee four years ago was led by Charles E. Snook and the call was prepared by him. Mr. Cook said that that was the basis of calculation at this time, as far as possible, was according to supervisorial districts, where a supervisor was to be elected. He believed it to be a fair apportionment so far as Berkeley was concerned. So far as the Forty-sixth Assembly district was concerned four years ago the county committee appointed the delegation arbitrarily and gave the people no chance. The call and apportionment, in all fairness, he thought, ought to be adopted.

COOK READS THE OLD CALL.
Richardson wanted to know why Berkeley was blanketed four years ago.

Cook read the call of four years ago, showing that so far from being blanketed, Berkeley was divided into five slices.

Charles E. Thomas, not a member of the committee, said that, under the apportionment, Berkeley would have nothing at all to say about the assemblyman.

M. C. Threlkeld said that so far as he could learn the people of Berkeley were opposed to the cutting up of the Fifty-second Assembly district. He was in favor of that district coming to the convention as a unit.

FAVORED THE OLD ONE.
Arthur Elston said he did not consider the blanket system an ideal one. It might work to the interest of one class of adherents in one section and against them in another. He endorsed the second call which had been read, namely, the call of four years ago.

Judge Frank of San Leandro said the people of Eden township were satisfied with the apportionment as made in the call.

Gale of Pleasanton said he did not believe the people of Eden township had any right to vote for the supervisor in his district. He was satisfied with the apportionment of the Forty-sixth district as it stood.

Chairman Reed then put Richardson's amendment to the effect that in the apportionment each assembly district be blanketed.

AMENDMENT LOST.
This was lost by a vote of 18 nays, 11 ayes, with two absent, as follows:

Ayes—Threlkeld, Hanley, Gross, Greig, Dalton, Knowles, Canley, Hughes, O'Connor, Cullaghan, Milton.

Nays—Aitken, Woolsey, Gale, Larsen, Lanktree, Griffith, Seale, Frank, Gold, Anderson, Samson, Elkhorn, J. B. Hanley, Farrow, Mowrey, Kirk—16.

Absent—Woolsey and Watson.

SECOND AMENDMENT LOST.
Richardson moved another amendment to the effect that the Fifty-second Assembly district have forty-three delegates and that they be apportioned as follows: Twenty-three in the Fifth supervisorial district, one in Ocean View, eighteen in the Fourth Supervisorial district, one in Claremont and Piedmont outside and one in Piedmont.

The motion was seconded by Greig and was lost by the same vote as was the other amendment.

VOTING BY PRECINCTS.

Hughes moved that the Fifty-second district vote according to precincts. Gale said he would favor that proposition if it could be applied to the whole county.

This motion was lost by a vote of twelve ayes, fifteen nays, two being absent.

CALL ADOPTED.

Cook's original motion that the call be adopted as read was carried by a vote of sixteen ayes and eleven nays. Those who had voted in the negative on the Richardson amendments voting in the affirmative and vice versa.

The committee adjourned to meet at the call of the chair. At the conclusion of the meeting, F. W. Richardson complimented Chairman Reed upon his uniform courtesy and fairness to all. The delegates will be as follows:

Did You Have

Shredded Wheat

Did you have for breakfast this morning? After you have tried all the "new ones" you will come back to Shredded Wheat, the world's best cereal food. Not so heating as corn or oats and much more nourishing and more easily digested. Try it with milk or cream or with fresh fruits. At your grocers.

Always heat the Biscuit in oven to restore crispness. Two Shredded Wheat Biscuits with milk or cream will supply all the energy needed for a half day's work. Try Toasted TRISCUIT, the Shredded Wheat wafer, for luncheon, with butter, cheese or marmalade.

GIRL RIDES RUNAWAY CAMEL

Animal Bol's Over Desert With Seattle Maid Who Travels to New York by Way of Asia.

NEW YORK July 10.—Miss Laura Duncan, of Seattle, who spent last night at the Martha Washington Hotel, is probably the only girl in the world who has ridden a wild camel to New York. Nearly two years ago, becoming an heiress, she decided to visit New York by way of Asia, Europe and the Atlantic. She visited Hawaii first, and then Japan. At Tokyo she was the guest of the Empress at a garden party. In Canton she got caught in an anti-foreign mob and had her gown spoiled by coals. FLEES OVER DESERT In Bengal she rode elephants and on the edge of the Sahara a camel ran away with her. At dinner by an ill-fitting strap, which prevented the camel from getting the last bit of its provender in its feed bucket, the animal bolted over the desert almost shaking Miss Duncan from the saddle. Riding a runaway camel takes one up some. Miss Duncan says. She had all she could do to hold on. The Arab owner of the "ship of the desert" jumped on another and faster camel and after a long chase caught the runaway by a strap and brought it to a "halt". Miss Duncan caught her first glimpse of New York when she came up the bay on the Umbria yesterday.

A Noted Cooking Authority Endorses Cottolene

Marion Harland Says:

"COTTOLENE is now so well and favorably known and so widely used that it needs no word of introduction or commendation from me. The most eminent of American chemists justly says that it 'possesses all desirable qualities of lard without the objectionable features inherent in all products obtained from swine'."

"COTTOLENE the 'desirable' substitute, is purer, more healthful, and more economical than lard."

When Marion Harland, one of the best known and most reliable food experts of the day, recommends COTTOLENE in such glowing and unqualified terms, you may be sure of its purity and healthfulness.

COTTOLENE is made from pure Cotton Seed oil refined by a special process. Because it contains nothing but healthful ingredients it cannot help but make healthful food. It produces light, crisp, easily digested pastry, doughnuts, cakes, cookies, bread and biscuits. It is economical, too, one-third less being required than of either lard or cooking butter.

Prove the merits of COTTOLENE to your own satisfaction by a personal test. It has always been granted highest award wherever exhibited in competition with other cooking fats.

Cottolene is Guaranteed

We hereby authorize your grocer to refund your money in case you're not pleased after having given COTTOLENE a fair test.

Never Sold in Bulk COTTOLENE is packed in pails with a patent air-tight top, to keep it clean, fresh and wholesome; also to prevent it from absorbing the disagreeable odors of the grocery, such as fish, oil, etc.

HOLDS UP FLEEING THIEF WITH KEY

One Burglar Captured, but Two Escape Under Biggy's Fire.

SAN FRANCISCO July 10.—Police Chief William J. Biggy and Sergeant Charles E. Skelly of the Fourth of Police Commissioners had their first encounter with three burglars at 1215 Ave. A this morning. Skelly caught one of the men and the chief fired five shots at two who escaped.

The burglars had been surprised while looting the silk store of L. Hart & Bro. at 1129 Sutter street. The man who was captured gave the names of his two companions. He did not know where they had gone. He had $100 and had nearly got away with them when they were discovered by James H. Shott, the watchman.

Shott was in the front office, on Sutter street, at the store at the time. After midnight he awakened and saw two men in the store room back of the office. The burglars saw him and fled at him. The watchman ran out into the alley and shot at them as they ran into Fort avenue. The two men were joined by a third who had been on watch and the three ran away.

Chief Biggy and Skelly were in front of the Nordhoff hotel at the time and saw the burglar run up. Biggy drew his revolver and called on the fugitives to stop but two of them dodged around a corner and got away. The chief following and shooting.

Skelly had no revolver but he caught the third burglar against the hotel wall. Lulling a big key from his pocket he threatened to blow the burglar's head off unless he threw up his hands. The two were successful and the prisoner was handcuffed.

DISCOVERS FORTUNE IN DRESS OF DEAD WIFE

Finds Himself $27,000 Richer Than He Thought.

While searching an old dress belonging to his late wife, Mary C. Smith, Samuel Smith, a pioneer resident of this city, found two bank books showing deposits amounting to more than $27,000 in two local banks. Mrs. Smith died last March but the widow is just discovered the fortune his spouse accumulated. The money will be transferred to Smith by the banks.

In 1871 Smith was married to a widow and owned property on Tenh street between Broadway and Franklin street. In order to improve the property Smith saved his earnings, adding room to the rate of his wife and later mortgaged the property to pay for the construction of a brick building. The mortgage was paid off and the wife quietly commenced saving money. On her death the real estate was transferred to Smith and is valued at $40,000 while there was a joint bank account of $20,000 in a local institution.

The entries in the bank books Smith discovered commenced six years and that ten years after the couple were married.

Half of the sickness and suffering in Oakland comes from a weak stomach.

Cure the cause by using Ml-o-na Stomach Pills and be well and happy. Then the most chronic cases yield to Ml-o-na. W. C. Cure the cause of your suffering and be well and happy.

If the stomach is weak and you have indigestion, flatulence, dizziness, headache, get a 50-cent box of Ml-o-na from leading druggists. They give an absolute guarantee to refund the money unless Ml-o-na cures.
